Complete Mastery of the Air

French aviators, remaining complete mastery of the air, dropped sixty-three tons of bombs on German troop concentrations back of the Marne battle front Saturday and Sunday.

The principal attacks were directed against bivouacs and marching troops in the concentration regions of Fismes and Oulchy-le-Chateau. One squadron commander sent more than fifty machines against a column of marching Germans, five kilometers (three miles) long in one day alone.

Everywhere French squadrons are successfully breaking columns of Germans marching to the front. Re-conquering planes kept the French commanders informed every 15 minutes of the precise location of the Boches, together with their density and the direction of their movements.

An artillery observer near Rheims, discovering three German tanks descending on Rheims from Bligny (five miles north), opened fire with an anti-tank battery. The leading tank was struck squarely and set afire. The others trudged away and sought shelter behind some farm buildings. The battery continued firing and soon all the buildings were ablaze. The occupants of the two tanks were observed running northward. The two tanks were not seen again and presumably were destroyed. The Germans employed tanks in Saturday's attack on Fort Pompelle.

War Notes

The leading excitement this week has been the German submarine attack on shipping on the American coast. The exact number of vessels is not known at the time of writing, but is put down at about a dozen all told. Three passenger steamers were attacked, the largest being the Caronia, bound for a Southern port. While the vessel was sunk, 360 were saved from the sea by taking to boats. Every boat that came in on Tuesday had picked up shipwrecked sailors in open boats. The total death list was put down at 16 in Tuesday's dispatches.

There are two million fewer male workers in England today than in 1916 and two million more are in hand under cultivation.

Indecent Local Case

Some time ago H. Haynes brought an action against Francis Downs in connection with an engine. It appears that Haynes and a man named White were threshing in this neighborhood in the fall of 1916 and being unable to continue operations went to Downs and arranged with him to take over the engine in consideration of his paying wages due which amounted to over $600.00. Downs gave a letter to Haynes and White stating that he would set aside any profit which the threshing outfit that he was ordered to operate would make and with these profits Haynes and White would have the privilege of buying the engine back but that adjustments were to be made within twenty-four hours of the outfit closing down. White dropped out of the deal and left Haynes his interest.

Downs claimed the outfit was run at a loss and it was soon closed down. Although Haynes claimed he wrote to Downs for a settlement of accounts Downs denied that he received any such letters. Finally on Sept. 20, 1917, Haynes tendered to Downs $811.90 and demanded the engine back, which Downs refused. Haynes took Downs in the Supreme Court and, after evidence had been given by witnesses that the engine (which had been originally purchased by Haynes and White for $100) was worth $1,500 at the time that Downs sold it in July, 1916, and Downs had given evidence that when he sold the engine he figured it at $900.

A decision was given by Justice McCarthy awarding Haynes $300 damages, and holding that there had been a conversion by Downs. This decision practically held that the sale to Downs and the arrangement giving the privilege of buying back amounted to a security.

From this decision Downs appealed to the Supreme Court of Alberta as being, who unanimously overruled the decision of Justice McCarthy, holding that the transaction was in no way a security but an absolute sale and awarding Downs all costs.

Counsel for Haynes, plaintiff—H. O. Haslam and J. C. Brokowski. Counsel for Downs—J. R. Wattand J. W. McDonald.

War Veterans Will Keep Ship Plants at Victoria Going

Work in Victoria, B. C., shipyards will be carried on by retained soldiers. A meeting of more than 400 men tonight agreed to keep the plants working until the end of the war. The men asked for an agreement to run at least one year, with a minimum wage of $4.00 and conceded the 10 per cent rise to skilled workers as an offset.

All speakers urged the necessity of dropping every other occupation to make assurance that vessels would be rushed to sea to carry aid to the men in the front.

The men stipulated that in return for an assured labor supply the imperial munitions board supply friendly aliens of military age. I. W. W. conscientious objectors are men who come under the Military Service Act.

SALT BEDS IN ALBERTA

With the prospective early completion of the Waterways Railway to McMurtry, Alberta, the question of resources to be developed becomes of interest. Development of salt works is made possible by the completion of the railway. Wells drilled in prospecting for oil in the neighborhood of McMurtry demonstrate the presence of an immense untapped bed of salt. Within a distance of fifty miles westward there is a flow of natural gas, no doubt coming from the oil fields at Pelican Rapids on the west. With abundance of gas and salt within reasonable distance of the salt beds, with the railroad in operation to those salt beds, and with the enormous market for salt that there is throughout the Prairie West and British Columbia, there should be no difficulty in utilizing capital that would turn these salt deposits to valuable account.

Salt is found in beds below the surface of the earth, but in America it is not mined as other minerals are. It is mined by a process of pumping and evaporation which involves the use of a large amount of fuel, and where coal or wood is used the cost is proportionately large. Wells are drilled to the salt, and if there is not sufficient water in the well, water is stored in it and the resulting brine is pumped to the surface. The water is then evaporated and the salt is made ready for market. The cost of fuel for the great quantities of steam used in the process. Where natural gas can be used the cost of production of salt is reduced to a minimum. The Western Ontario and Michigan salt works are largely upon a supply of natural gas, which of course, reduces to a minimum the cost of production of these salts.

MEADOW CREEK NOTES

The warm days make us all think that spring has come at last, but rain is needed badly.

The farewell dance given at Meadow Creek was a great success, a fine crowd turned out, and a fine crowd of the crowd of its location.

Mrs. Willette, Mr. L. G. de Forest and Larry Carter played for the dance, and everyone had a jolly time.

Mrs. C. B. Marshall is home again and is much better for her trip.

Alex. Bell and Hope Oliver were called to Calgary this week. We won't have many boys left.

Mr. and Mrs. de Forest have been very sick with colds, but are some better.

Miss Anna de Forest spent the week-end at her home.

Miss Maud Bell, of Taber, has been spending a few days with her parents at Bell Brook.

We hear Aubrey C. Watson has a 1917 model Studebaker car to run the mail, or to get some of his neighbor's mail in, and it takes a big car to do that.

Mrs. Willette has left Mr. Bisset's and we hear Mrs. Hicks and niece are coming to take charge. This house is looking fine with its new coat of paint.

All the dogs must be dead, as we don't have any more getting loose.

Mrs. Bache's baby has been quite ill, but is now getting better.

Mr. Trauma McRobby has recovered from blood poisoning.

Mr. W. D. Foxcroft has his back nearly up. Mr. Seymour is helping him build it.

Some say we don't need a post office on Meadow Creek, but it is hard to get mail from town and the house we get one the better.

LAND RULES FOR SOLDIERS PLACED IN AGENTS' HANDS.

Land regulations under the Soldier Settlement Act for the granting of free entries on Dominion lands, are now being placed in the hands of the various agents of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and the Peace River block in British Columbia. The regulations will come into force on July 2 next.

Men returned from overseas, who come under the Soldier Settlement Act, will be able, under these regulations, to acquire, in addition to their ordinary homestead rights, a soldier grant of 160 acres.

The settlement duties of a soldier grant are substantially the same as in the case of an applicant producer. The advertisement of these regulations affects Dominion lands in the Peace River block in the department of the interior.

How to Apply

Applications for entry for a soldier grant may be made before the agent in the first part of the same by the district in the same way as for an ordinary homestead. Unless the applicant produces a certificate of attestation from the soldier settlement board, he must produce his discharge papers.

When a soldier grant is applied for, the soldier must be in receipt of a settlement in force for entry as a soldier grant, but such an entry can also be secured on any vacant and available Dominion land. Provision is made for entry by proxy and practically the same conditions as applied to homesteads. No entry for a claim in connection with a soldier grant.

The Toronto Globe highly praises the attitude of the Western members of parliament for their attitude on the bill to abolish the patronage system. It frankly admits that the bill would have been defeated but for their aid. The old die-hard politicians of Ontario and the Maritime Provinces were strongly opposed to the bill and frankly said so. Buchanan, Trevelyan, Bruce, Richardson and Clarke all worked hard for the measure and succeeded in nothing in its passage.

The Western Canada Irrigation Association will hold its 12th annual convention this year at Nelson, B. C., on the 25th, 26th and 27th of July. If you are interested in water, or information write to Secretary R. J. C. Stead, P.O. Box 1371, Calgary.

Are you having cold? If you have not got your winter supply safely stored away before August, the chances are you will have to emigrate to a warmer climate for the winter. There will be no cars available for coal once harvesting operations start.

Mr. A. L. Marks, provincial solicitor, has all boys who have enlisted in this band to the front. They will have to emigrate to a warmer climate for the winter. There will be no cars available for coal once harvesting operations start.

Miss Lottie Heyland and Miss G. Chambers, of Calgary, came down on Friday evening to spend the week-end with their parents.

Miss McGillivray, who was Chautauque superintendent, last winter, will have charge again this winter. Those who remember the pleasant and efficient manner in which she conducted the last Chautauque will give her a hearty welcome.

The Misses Day, of St. John, N.B., arrived in town Friday evening on a visit to Mr. R. K. Peck. Mr. Peck is so proud of his two new daughters his heart is sticking out like a pointer pigeon's.

On Thursday evening Miss Isabel Tovel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tovel, was taken violently ill after eating a chocolate. The doctor was called in time to save her life. An examination of the remaining chocolates by the doctor revealed enough strychnine poison in the candy to have killed a dozen people. The chocolates were purchased in Okotoks.

The local movie theatre has been compelled to raise the price of admission to their showings owing to government taxation. The Dominion Government is certainly rough in their handling of the productions of the local movie theatre.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1918

Will Not Cause Unnecessary Inconvenience

Farmers may be reassured that there is no intention on the part of the new authorities to inconvenience them unduly in their busy season with unnecessary restrictions and regulations as regards the hoarding of food stuffs.

An order of the Canadian Food Board recently made it illegal for people to have more than 15 days supply of flour, most wheat or in part from wheat, on hand at any one time. For people living at a greater distance than two miles and not less than five miles from dealers licensed by the Canadian Food Board, sufficient for their ordinary requirements up to 30 days only was allowed and for persons living 10 miles or more 120 days supply.

Further it was required that any such surplus holdings should forthwith be returned to the miller or dealer from whom they were purchased, at the purchase price or at the market price, which ever were the lower.

This Order was designed primarily to remedy a state of things in the towns and cities, as it was commonly reported that some people had laid in undue quantities of flour in view of the world's scarcity, whereby thinking that they would be sure of a normal supply for the next year or so whether the people in Europe starved or not.

In case of farmers, however, it pointed out that it was their custom in many cases to take wheat to the mill and get several month's supply ground on one occasion so as to save frequent trips and waste of time. To require that such a farmer return all surplus flour to the mill and then come back every couple of weeks, or like short intervals, for supplies of their own flour, would seriously interfere with farm work, occasioning unnecessary travelling and the waste of days precious, especially at seeding and harvest time, to the cause of production, a cause more important, even, than that of conservation.

Now the farmer shall be permitted to hold, subject to the order of the Canadian Food Board, the amounts provided for other people. An Order in Council passed on May 17th makes this express provision:—

"A bona fide farmer shall be permitted to hold, subject to the order of the Canadian Food Board, the amount of flour, made whole or in part from wheat, he may have in his possession in excess of the amount prescribed by Order No. 31 if, on or before the 15th day of June, 1918, he reports to the miller or dealer from whom it was purchased or by whom it was manufactured, the excess amount held by him."

When these reports are received it is the duty of the miller or dealer to pass them on to the Canadian Food Board and thus it will be known by the authorities what the supply of flour in the country is and where it is. Further this order provides that in cases where a farmer or any other person has in his possession one party used barrel or package he shall not be required to return his surplus requirements nor shall he be required to return amounts of less than 25 pounds. This is seen that the intention of the Order is entirely reasonable and will not work hardship or inconvenience unnecessarily.

British steerman brought down 333 German planes in three weeks. Up to June 2nd and during the same period 321 tons of high explosives were dropped behind the German lines. The Zeppelin made the Burgess docks and railway stations and munition works in cities far inside Germany—like Mannheim, London, Karlsruhe and Cologne, were attacked repeatedly and set afire again and again.

Practically the whole of Alberta has long received some degree of moisture, most of the country being generously soaked. Reports from the farmers indicate that the crop situation is generally good, the agricultural prospects for a bumper harvest. And the time is at hand for more breaking, too much of which cannot be under taken.

Your Oil Opportunity in Wyoming

The Oil Industry, especially in Wyoming, has been pioneered by the small investor. The impending magnitude of the development during the past two years has demanded the attention of every class of people in the United States.

Now there comes daily reports of huge fortunes made in oil over night—and the industry is still in its infancy. The chance to get into big companies at their inception and grow rich with them as they develop is still open to those who will act quickly. This truth applies to the Clark Fork Oil Co. to a greater extent than to any other we know of. Our advice is that you should get in now while you can at the present price. Oil from either one of our holdings will make a fortune for our shareholders.

Our lessee here have been procured to be well within the producing area and had no other holdings, the money will be secured of a good run for his money in Warm Springs.

CLARK FORK OIL FIELD—Without doubt one of the richest producing of the Montana Wyoming territory. Our first well will start here within a few days. This company particularly controls all of the lease and in event of oil, we will rank as the largest company in the field.

MANDERSON OIL DOME—Recognized as a huge oil structure, and only waiting actual developments to prove its worth. We have secured average lease and will commence an active drilling campaign as soon as our other fields have been proven.

CARBONADO DOME—A test well will be put down here this summer which will prove our extensive holdings. Oil showings are abundant here according to all expert reports and there is little likelihood of failure.

KANSAS—We have a large acreage here in the heart of the productive region. Production here is practically assured.

Every Farmer Needs a Ford

THE Motor Car is a greater convenience to the average farmer than the telephone, the rural mail or even the grain binder.

The binder which is considered as a very useful implement is rarely used more than a few days during the entire year. The rest of the time it stands idle, taking up space, while the automobile is available for use throughout all seasons, and both day and night.

It is ever ready to run down the lane to the back field or the pasture with a parcel or a message, or take you and your family to town for shopping purposes—or on an errand to the neighbors.

The motor car is called upon whenever anything is wanted in a hurry. It is the most useful implement or convenience for the farm. It helps you conserve your energies and time for productive work and enables you and your family to accomplish more with less energy. You surely feel the need of a Ford. Why not order one today?

"The Man From Montana"
Duke Farley and Dad Petzel own two mines near the town of Green Water. The mine of course is the Worm, and because it had never yielded anything, was thought worthless. The other was a heavy producer, and they called it the Beehive. Dad was indebted in the absence of his partner, to play with the Bumblebee to a pair of clever crooks for fifty thousand dollars worth of bumble. Dad had been deceived because the swindlers had a girl with them whose face he believed in. He liked her countenance so much that he asked for her photograph and got it. The two partners took their loss philosophically and started to work the Worm. Duke then told his partner that he was going east. He vowed the purpose was to get the swindlers who had stolen their mine, but his secret intention was to find the original of the photograph. He got both. He had not sovered the girl. Water than the Worm turned. Dad sold it for half a million the next day. Duke didn't know this, but the swindler had an agent in Green Water, who informed him. Using the girl as a tool, he managed to gain Duke's confidence, and framed him with a nasty charge involving the girl's honor. The swindler almost got away with it, and if it had not been for a very fortunate circumstance, there would have been another ending to the story. Old Dad, failing to hear from the duke, decided to take the bunch and go east to look for him. After a week of wooders, they finally wind up on boards selling vessel, "shanghai-aid." Duke makes an appointment to meet the swindler at the dock, and he too is thrown into the vessel, bound for the far east. But when the partners and their miners sit thus united, their strength is too much for the crew, and they force the captain to put back just in time to bring the swindler and his band to justice.

"Record, Record, Who's Got a Record"
The hospital ward was big and bare, just a huge figure in officer's khaki on his daily inspection, or perhaps a nurse bending over some helpless form, broke the uniform sameness of the rows and rows of white cots. In the centre of the room within earshot of all, a talking machine had been placed. To these wounded soldiers this was a gift from the skies, for music will soothe the sick, cheer the lonely and brighten the lives of all its hearers. On this particular morning "Silver Threads Among the Gold" had been played twice, "Annie Laurie" had been encored three times, while "Casey Jones," bring the soldiers, was played on the morning dial over five times. Can you blame the fighters for not receiving much inspiration and cheer when just three records had been allotted their ward owing to such a limited supply?

This is just one instance of the many that occur in our military hospitals and rest homes, throughout the country, where thousands of returned soldiers are being cared for and who have some reproducing machine or player piano, but a very poor and meagre assortment of records or player rolls. Can you not start to looking thru your cabinets and sort out the records that no longer interest you and have become useless. Think what it will mean to these various Soldier Homes and Hospitals to receive selections of records that you have sent them, in care of your local branch of the Red Cross. So let's make this the record campaign for our country's heroes.

Help to Steady the Mind
One of the best institutions in this country is the Chautauqua Summer Platform. Certainly in the stress of these times it should be preserved if any institution is to be preserved. It brings to people who are harassed by the thought of the future, healthy entertainment, something different from what they get in their towns. It brings a fresh element into the social life of the town, a very desirable thing particularly in the summer community. It will give stimulating ideas about the great questions that the country must understand and study. Everything now depends upon the country keeping its mind steady and active and inspiring people to a full co-operation in the undertakings of the government. The Chautauqua Platform will do this in a wonderfully direct way. Every community ought to be willing to sacrifice, if necessary to keep Chautauqua alive in the community—Ira M. Tarbell.

Five Mile Notes
A new barn is being built on Wilfred Gibbie's farm.
Mrs. John Chilton entertained the Sunshine Club on Wednesday last.
Earl Reid and family arrived from Ontario last weekend will take charge of W. Gibbie's farm, while the latter is overseas fighting the Hun.
Cadet Ernest Mowley is in the hospital in Toronto. It is thought that there is nothing serious the matter.
Nearly everyone is planning on taking in the Chautauqua next week.

Baseball
On Wednesday evening the boys of Woodhouse and Hoosier met for a game of baseball on the grounds at Woodhouse. The score stood 13 to 4 in favor of Woodhouse. The Hoosier team was weakened by some of their leading players being absent.
The line-up was as follows:—
Hoosier—S. Whitehead, W. Whitehead, M. Whitehead, Rice, Gorman, Anderson, Burlank, Olfert, Nelson, Woodhouse—Johnston, Young, G. Torrance, Krueger, Train, Anderson, A. Anderson, Symmonds, C. Torrance.
A game between Stately and Vulcan on Thursday night which was played off at Stately created quite an interest. On the whole the playing was poor and very one sided. The score at the close stood 7 to 0 in favor of Vulcan.
The line up was as follows:
Stately Battery—Fortier, Haynes, Line up—C. Star, B. Star, Graham, R. Jenkins, M. Jenkins, Overland, Allen.
Vulcan Battery—Brown, Duckard, Line up—Gray, Godfred, Buckler, Tapp, Gibson, Bain, Shoder.

The movement within Russia in favor of the cause of the Allies is increasing and has been strengthened by President Wilson's declaration of sympathy for Russia, says a Petrograd dispatch to the Daily Express. The Russian democracy also is enthusiastic over the recent steps taken by the British government to show its friendship. The Norse Vedemott, in a long article, defends the policy of the Allies and expresses gratitude for President Wilson's friendly utterances.

A Tight Board Coal Bin
in a dark cool place will keep IMPERIAL coal in good shape for many months. That's why we erect a coal shed.
A ton of Coal put in your cellar or coal bin today saves a ton of transportation next winter, are you sure of getting that coal next winter?
We are trying to help the situation by putting coal into stock right now. Do your share by taking it out.
